

Year 3 - Unit 2 Celebrating Difference

Reflective question
How can words affect someone's feelings?

Learning Intentions—PSHE
Understand that everybody's family is different and important to them Understand that differences and conflicts sometimes happen among family members Know what it means to be a witness to bullying Know that witnesses can make the situation better or worse by what they do Recognise that some words are used in hurtful ways Tell you about a time when my words affected someone's feelings and what the consequences were

Learning intentions Social and Emotional Development Appreciate my family/the people who care for me Know how to calm myself down and can use the 'Solve it together' technique Know some ways of helping to make someone who is bullied feel better Problem-solve a bullying situation with others Try hard not to use hurtful words (e.g. gay, fat) Give and receive compliments and know how this feels

Vocabulary
bullying	when a person is frightened or hurt by someone over and over again bystander	someone who happens to be present when something takes place but does not take part in it caring	the act of watching over or tending; protection compliment	an expression of praise, admiration, or approval conflict	to disagree strongly connected	to become joined or linked consequences	a result or effect of behaviour difference	not being the same as something or someone else family	any group living together as if they were related by blood gay	when a man or woman is romantically attracted to people of the same sex as themselves hurtful	causing physical or emotional pain or suffering loving	feeling or showing love resolve	to deal with in a successful way safe	free from the risk of harm similarities	having resemblance or likeness special	better or more important than the usual solutions	the act or process of solving a problem or question unique	being the only one of its type unkind	not being nice to someone witness	a person who sees or hears something that happened

The Jigsaw Charter

- We take turns to speak
- We use kind and positive words
- We listen to each other
- We have the right to pass
- We only use names when giving compliments or when being positive
- We respect each other's privacy (confidentiality)

Hello I'm Jigsaw Jino