

Year 2 - Unit 1 Being me in my world

Reflective question

What is the importance of having rights and responsibilities? What part do I play in this?

Learning Intentions—PSHE

Can identify some of my hopes and fears for this year I know how to use my Jigsaw Journal

Understand the rights and responsibilities for being a member of my class and school

Understand the rights and responsibilities for being a member of my class

Can listen to other people and contribute my own ideas about rewards and consequences

Understand how following the Learning Charter will help me and others learn

Can recognise the choices I make and understand the consequences

Learning intentions

Social and Emotional Development

Recognise when I feel worried and know when to ask for help

Recognise when I feel worried and know who to ask for help

Can help to make my class a safe and fair place

Can help make my class a safe and fair place

Can work cooperatively

Choosing to follow the Learning Charter

Vocabulary

actions	something that is done for a particular purpose belonging	the condition of being comfortable and friendly with others choices	the act of picking or choosing consequences	a result or effect cooperation	the act of working together fears	a strong feeling one gets when one expects danger or pain hopes	A feeling or chance that something will happen the way one wants it to learning charter	agreed rules to follow at school negative	not helpful or constructive positive	bringing something good, or giving some kind of advantage praise	words that show admiration or respect problem solving	the act or process of finding solutions to a complex issue responsibilities	something for which a person is responsible; duty rewards	something of value that is promised to someone for good work or a good deed rights	in keeping with the rules of justice, law, or society
worries	a cause of troubled or anxious feelings

